Storie d'amore (Italian Edition) Salvatore florindo Brindisi

Due sono le storie che costituiscono il nucleo di questo piacevole romanzo. Nella prima si riflette parte del piccolo mondo della scuola dove si intrecciano rapporti, emozioni e dissapori e dove il protagonista, suo malgrado è al centro di una rete di sentimenti che, gradualmente si ingarbuglieranno. Nello sviluppo della stessa storia si crea, così il rituale triangolo amoroso da vero scoop con le relative conseguenze e con un bel colpo di scena finale che va a premiare, come recita il titolo "il sacrificio d'amore".

L'andamento del narrare è leggero e ,in alcuni passi, prende e coinvolge il lettore in un tourbillon di emozioni, così come accade, anche, per la seconda storia: "Amore d'oltre oceano", che si svolge su due piani paralleli: quello della nostra piccola provincia di paese con tutte le limitazioni e rinunce e pregiudizi e il tema dell'emigrazione forzata per è che, ha frantumato famiglie, aspettative e promesse d'amore. In questo vortice di tensioni si muove il nostro protagonista che vive un amore tormentato per la bella Annalisa: figlia del fidanzato della madre; Quel Donato che,emigrando si farà una nuova vita in America e abbandonerà a Ripacandida la sua fidanzatina. Tanti i colpi di scena proprio come in una fiction. Anche qui è al centro il desiderio di affermazione oltre che l'abbandonarsi al ruolo del caso che alla fine metterà tutto a posto proprio come accade ad ogni romanzo che si rispetti. I caratteri dei personaggi, in entrambe le storie sono delineati, così come i dialoghi che, filtrano dei veri e propri profili psicologici sia di quelle che si muovono nella piccola realtà della scuola così come poi della società odierna dedita al marketing e così come l'analisi della società di paese e di quella d'oltreoceano per la seconda storia. Si percepisce nell'autore l'entusiasmo e la dedizione per la scrittura e il desiderio di coinvolgere i suoi lettori nel suo mondo.
