Caught in the Middle (Ladies of Caldwell County, Book 3) Regina Jennings

She Wants the Freedom of the Open Plains.

He Wants the Prestige of a Successful Career.

Neither is Ready for What Comes Instead.

The train to Garber, Texas, is supposed to bring life's next victory to Nicholas Lovelace. Instead, it gets held up by robbers who are thwarted by the last person Nick ever expected--Anne Tillerton from back home in Prairie Lea.

Anne's been hiding away as a buffalo hunter. She's only in town to find their runaway cook, but the woman flees--leaving Anne with her infant son. With Nick the only person Anne knows in town, the two form an unlikely team as they try to figure out what to do with the child.

But being in town means acting and dressing for polite society--and it's not going well for Anne. Meanwhile, Nick's work is bringing new pressures, and being seen with a rough-around-the-edges woman isn't helping his reputation. Caught between their own dreams, a deepening relationship, and others' expectations, can the pair find their way to love?

"[Jennings is] a fresh voice in Christian historical romance..." Library Journal

"With its nonpreachy depiction of vulnerable but strong characters wrestling with right and wrong, Jennings' entertaining romance will please readers who enjoy tales that embody Christian values as well as readers who like a good, wholesome story." -Booklist
