In direct European comparison, the penalty fines incurred for road traffic violations in Germany are relatively low. Against this backdrop, the German legislator initiated a significant increase in penalty fines for road traffic violations. As penalty fines increase for road traffic violations so too does the necessity for quality defending. This work is targeted towards practitioners. It primarily explains penalty fines in road traffic law from the perspective of the attorney. Valuable tips on defending are provided and samples letters, which are aimed at achieving the attorney's goal in matters concerning penalty fines, are included.
