Il giovane sommelier di Bermondsey Street (Italian Edition) Andrea Baroni

Luca è un giovane parmigiano convinto che un'avventura estiva tra i filari del mitico produttore di Champagne K. Micoud possa dargli lo slancio per terminare finalmente l'università. Sarà presto costretto ad abbandonare l'idillio campestre e riparare rocambolescamente a Londra tra le braccia del primo amore.

Durante il soggiorno nella metropoli frequenta la prestigiosa scuola enologica del WSET e si ritrova assunto nel più esclusivo e lussuoso Wine Store della capitale. Qui, grazie alle innate doti di ascoltatore, diventa il consulente di alcuni strampalati ed eccentrici clienti. Inadatto a reggere la pressione e la competitività della grande città ripara a nord nella ridente Glasgow proprio alla vigilia della sperata indipendenza. Mantenendosi a suon di scommesse calcistiche resiste qualche mese, finché il richiamo del commercio al dettaglio delle sbronze diventa irresistibile. Un racconto ironico, che ci condurrà dalle enoteche parmigiane ai filari della Champagne, fino a Londra e ai placidi parchi di Glasgow. Una storia di amicizia, amore e sesso che è un inno alla vita e un omaggio appassionato al vino buono e a chi lo beve.
