Do you like to read political thrillers or legal thrillers?

Here's your chance to enjoy both types of thrillers in one action-packed book.

Attorney Roy Angel just wanted to retire early from his work as a professional "fixer" of problems for the rich and powerful.

When he accepts a final assignment as a favor to a mentor, Roy ends up caught in the middle of a conspiracy to turn the United States into a police state. Trying to identify and stop those behind the plot, he's branded a domestic terrorist and murderer.

It's no longer about early retirement. He risks losing everything, including his life, to save those he loves and his country.

As a thriller, Mike Carnegie's "Angel of Justice" delivers with every turn of the page.
