THE KING OF THE TREES WILLIAM D. BURT

Book I in the "King of the Trees" fantasy series. Wholesome reading for the entire family. Features a glossary/pronunciation guide at the back for easier reading and/or reading aloud. For ages 8 and up.

What do an old wooden box, a jeweled pendant and some mysterious, green-garbed strangers share in common? When Rolin son of Gannon is caught up in this riddle, his adventures take him worlds beyond the walls of his little log cabin. With the help of some grumpy griffins and a long-lost prophecy, Rolin and his friends battle a fiendish foe and his underworld army; batwolves, dragons and other mythological creatures. On their perilous quest for the blessed Isle of Luralin and the Tree of Life, they must trust the King with their very lives. In the end, they learn that "The greatest help oft comes in harm's disguise to those with trusting hearts and open eyes."

"The King of the Trees" will enchant readers young and old, especially those who love trees and the Tree-Maker.
