A do-it-yourself guide to a happy and fulfilling marriage

In every marriage, the blush of new love tends to fade with the wear-and-tear of daily life, but this doesn't mean a marriage must be condemned. In this smart and sassy relationship guide, Sharyn Wolf, CSW, helps readers identify and fix the problems that, over time, creep or crash into long-term relationships. Wolf begins by helping readers conduct a current "appraisal" of their marriage and envision a blueprint for improving it. She then gives spouses the tools to break down walls, repair past mistakes, and restore their relationship to its original luster. With a light touch and welcome common sense, this invaluable guide will enlighten and entertain anyone whose relationship could use a little renovation.
