Viagens na minha Terra (Portuguese Edition) Almeida Garrett

Viagens na Minha Terra Viagens na Minha Terra é um livro da autoria de Almeida Garrett obra na qual se misturam o estilo digressivo da viagem real (que o autor fez de Lisboa a Santarém) e a narração novelesca em torno de Carlos, Frei Dinis e Joaninha. O livro Viagens na Minha Terra, publicado em volume em 1846, é o ponto de arranque da moderna prosa literária portuguesa: pela mistura de estilos e de gêneros, pelo cruzamento de uma linguagem ora clássica ora popular, ora jornalística ora dramática, ressaltando a vivacidade de expressões e imagens, pelo tom oralizante do narrador, Garrett libertou o discurso da pesada tradição clássica, antecipando o melhor que a este nível havia de realizar Eça de Queirós. Mas a obra vale também pela análise da situação política e social do país e pela simbologia que Frei Dinis e Carlos representam: no primeiro é visível o que ainda restava de positivo e negativo do Portugal velho, absolutista o segundo representa, até certo ponto, o espírito renovador e liberal. No entanto, o fracasso de Carlos é em grande parte o fracasso do país que acabava de sair da guerra civil entre miguelistas e liberais e que dava os primeiros passos duma vivência social e política em moldes modernos.
