The UK's Law National Admissions Test (LNAT) entrance exam is now a requirement at many leading UK universities. This fully revised and up-to-date guide provides an in-depth understanding of both Parts A and B of the LNAT. The rationale and use of critical reasoning tests is explained, including the style and format of the multi-choice questions used in the LNAT. A practice test is provided which follows the LNAT approach, along with explanations of both the correct and incorrect answers.
