Travel back in time to the kingdom of Terrestria, the realm of good King Emmanuel, where knights and their ladies live in castles and where dragons still roam (occasionally). Yet the land is at war. Evil, cruel argamor wants the throne. And he has loyal followers placed streategically throughout the kingdom. Who will win the battle for Terrestria, and on which side will Josiah find himself? When Princess Gilda and Prince Selwyn refuse the offer of a gift forbidden by King Emmanuel, Prince Josiah accepts, not realizing that his actions will impact the Castle of Faith. For a time, the young prince is able to conceal his act of treachery, and it seems that all is well. But when a Cararian Greatwing-the fiercest of dragons-begins terrorizing the kingdom, Josiah learns too late that he is powerless to control the beast that he has unleashed upon Terrestria. This fifth adventure in the Terrestria allegory series will challenge the reader to guard his or her heart for the King. Alive with fast-paced action in a medieval setting, the Terrestria allegory series encourages the reader to livea as a child of the King.
