Looking for Providence (Boston Boys Club) (Volume 5) Johnny Diaz

Ronnie thought he had everything he wanted - a guy he adored and a job he loved. Then the economy tanked and the 25-year-old not only lost his movie critic boyfriend but a dream job as a newspaper features writer. Now single in his newly adopted city of Providence, Ronnie learns to start over as a Business reporter in Rhode Island's capital city where he bops around town in his white Nissan Cube. And his life is about to take a dramatic turn during a reporting assignment when he meets Phil , a handsome local business executive. Phil takes Ronnie under his wing and shows him around his native Providence and just maybe, the way to his heart. But is Ronnie ready to love again? Complicating matters is the arrival of bigger-than-life, famous gay cable network executive Randy who takes a liking to Ronnie and his reporting on a new reality series set in Providence.

Ronnie receives some long-distance guidance from his Miami wing man Elias who is reeling from the loss of his cable TV production job. Broke, unemployed and ready for a change, Elias reluctantly moves back home to his mother's estate when he discovers a volunteer opportunity in Berlin that he just can't say no to. During one unpredictable summer, Ronnie and Elias are there for each other as they embark on new adventures that will forever change their lives.
