Excerpt from The Statue of John P. Hale: Erected in Front of the Capitol and Presented to the State of New Hampshire; An Account of the Unveiling Ceremonies on August 3, 1892, With a Report of the Addresses Delivered by the Donor and His Excellency Governor Hiram A. Tuttle, Councilor George A. R

The statue of John Parker Hale, of Dover, New Hampshire, now standing in front of the capitol at Concord, was tendered to the state by a letter, as follows:

To the Governor and Council of the State of New Hampshire:

Gentlemen: I have the honor to state that I have made a contract for the erection of a statue of John P.Hale in the state house yard at Concord, which I hereby donate to the state of New Hampshire, and ask the acceptance thereof.

The statue will be of the same size as that of Daniel Webster, now in the state house yard, and will be cast at the same bronze foundry in Munich after designs of Mr. F.Von Miller, artist and director of the bronze foundry. It is expected that the statue will be ready and in place for unveiling in the month of September, 1891.

I have requested Col. Daniel Hall to present this communication.
