Can I Really Date without Regrets?

We live in a culture that doesn't see dating as a big deal, but the reality is how you date and who you date can literally change the course of your life. When he was young, popular speaker and pastor, Perry Noble, was a dating disaster. Once he met (his now wife) Lucretia, he made the commitment to date her successfully and have no regrets. Over the years, Perry has met hundreds of people with a lot of questions and regrets about singleness, sex and dating. This book is written around the eleven questions that can transform your perspective on dating and a 'half' question that people should be asking about dating, but aren't. With this guide, you can...

- Understand what fun and successful dating should look like
- Learn how to avoid the pitfalls, traps, and false expectations of today's dating culture
- Discover what it truly means to guard your heart
- Know how to live an abundant life until you meet "the one"
