Contemporary International Law Issues - Opportunities at a Time of Momentous Change: Proceedings of the Second Joint Conference Held in the Hague, The Netherlands, July 22-24, 1993

This volume is the record of the Second Joint Conference of The American Society of International Law and the Nederlandse Vereniging voor Internationaal Recht, which was held in The Hague, on July 22-24, 1993. At this event, international scholars, practitioners and experts gathered to discuss the latest developments in such areas as trade and investment, the environment, human rights, law of the sea, settlement of disputes, international criminal law, NAFTA, the European Community, and commercial arbitration with particular reference to Central and Eastern Europe. The content of these proceedings bears evidence to the wide range of dialogue that occurred during the conference and directs the reader to issues which might form suitable subjects for further research and elaboration in other scholarly work. The book should be of interest to academics and diplomats, as well as legal practitioners.
