Successful Administration of Senior Housing: Working with Elderly Residents Nancy W. Sheehan

This book provides concrete help on how to address the support needs of elderly residents of sheltered housing.

Sheehan offers specific strategies to housing managers, social service providers and health care professionals working with elderly tenants. The book includes discussions of appropriate responses to increasing frailty of residents, and of how to judge when independent housing is no longer appropriate. It also includes an examination of guidelines available to housing managers in their expanded role, which is no longer simply a matter of 'bricks and mortar' but now encompasses consideration of elderly residents' special needs.
